

Bronagh Andrew has been working with women who have been exploited in prostitution for over 15 years. In 2000 she qualified with her Post Graduate Diploma in Social Work and took up a post with the Routes Out of Prostitution team. Since 2004 she has specifically worked with women who have been trafficked into the UK for the purposes of Commercial Sexual Exploitation. Bronagh is now the Operations Manager for the Community Safety Glasgow, TARA Service which has been providing assistance to women who have been trafficked for Commercial Sexual Exploitation and identified in Scotland for 10 years.